Mr. Wise this afternoon took the dying deposition of a coolie named Id Luk, who, it is alloged, was brutally assaulted by watchman named Adam Mouses, at the filter beds, on Saturday last. The coolie, it appears, was engaged in laying turi at the filter beds, and it is stated that the sourced kicked him and struck him with his fists.

An old resident of the Kar East, Mr John Pitman, (of Canton), died at the Civil Hospital yesterday. THE Ch'Eng-knoang Tien, where the Austrian Minister has just been received, is historically connected with the surrender of a Han field-marshal, to the Emperor of the Wei dynasty, when both were contanding for empire. . The Emperor accepted the surrender, and gave the marshal and his comrades a banquet in this ball. Further particulars are given in the next number of the China Review, now in the press.

THE Finance Committee of the Legislative Council has all but passed the Estimates, having manifested a far more docila spirit than was shown last year. With the. exception of the vote for the audit department, the various items have been passed with little or no opposition. We suppose the unofficials feel that it is almost hopeless to attack individual items and that short of a thorough reorganisation of the service there is small chance of effecting the much-needed retrenchment. Perhaps before the estimates are finally passed the unofficial members may embody their views about economy in a separate report. Wo think it is time to reconsider the status of this colony. Hongkong is ranked as a firstclass colony, and it may be of first-class importance to the imperial authorities. . But apart from imperial interests, it is merely a medium-sized city, with a good trade and a few rich houge, containing a little more than 200,000 inhabitants, two-thirds. of whom are poor coolies who do not earn £12 a year. It is both foolish and unjust to rank such a place in the same category as Coylon, Queensland, South Australia, Burmah, New Zealand or even Mauritius and the Straits Settlements, and to give it a hierarchy of officials on the same liberal scale as is given to large colonies. The Governor of this little island city, which is not bigger than the capital of Queensland and cer tainly not richer, gets as large a salary as the Governor of all Queensland, and at the best is little more than a puppet in the hands of the permanent clerks of the Colonisi Office. He oversteps his power if he sanctions the smallest municipal improvement without submission to the Home authorities. In mest matters his power is more limited time the mayor of any small town in England. Residents may feel some pride in knowing that they belong to a 'first-class' Colony, but the pride is very dearly bought and would be surrendered without a pang. The incessant law-tinker ing that goes on seems to give some raison. d'eire for a part of the costly administration, but the Colony would lose little if the legislating were curtailed and the government of Hongkong approached nearer to the Shanghai model. A Muncipal Council with a Lieutenant Governor is quite sufficient for the needs of this small island. THE Kuangchi is ashore near the Shantung

SOLDIERS INSULTED FROM THE PULPIT. -At the Roman Catholic churches in Kilkenny a tiffs; and Mr Robinson, instructed by Mr a British subject who was dying in a house few Sunday ago, a circular was readfrom the Bishop of Ossory, prohibiting the congregations from visiting the entertainments about to be given by the Middlesex Regiment at the theatre attached to the military barracks this week. At ten o'clock mass in St. John's Cathedral, the Rev. Mr Bowes having read the circular, said the visiting of such places was most irregular in Catholie communities, and spoke especially of the dangers to which young women were subjected by such attendances. It being the soldiers' service. Lleutenant Ross, with a detachment of men, was present in church, and on the Rev. London, October 1 .- The action of Lord

the existing Chinese dynasty is in a dangerous position ; that it is an alien dynasty and rebellion, or possibly revolution, is likely at any time to occur, as great hostility is felt toward the present monarch and his supporters by the disaffected influential

These officials, realizing the fact that the Emperor of China may not necessarily be a momber of the royal line, have given evidence of ambitions reaching even to the throne itself. Consequently the Emperor and his advisors, knowing of the existence of this opposition and ambitions, have feared to adopt repressive measures, doubting their strength to carry them out. This excuse and explanation seemed so reasonable that the diplomatic representatives of the Western powers were unable to combat it or dispute it, and so after a free discussion of the subject they agreed to speept the situation as it was and back up the present Chinese dynasty with their army and navy

England was chosen to lead the way, as was considered to be in the best posttion to carry out the agreement. Lord Saliabury consequently assured the Chinese Vicercy that England would give every aid to the present Government in putting down rebellion if such rebellion occurred through the effort of the Chinese authorities to punish the authors of the reiont outrages on foreigners or in adopting measures tending to insure salety and unctection to foreign residents in China.

The present dynasty, therefore, is supported by the leading powers of Europe, which practically guarantees it against disaster from any internecine trouble bearing upon the foreign question. Relying upon this assurance China has r cently been vigoronaly degrading a number of its high officials and adjusting claims of compensation.

This extraordinary state of affairs is authenticated to-day by the Manchester Guardian, which says it is a sequel to the statement published in the blue book, that at one stage of the episode the Uhinese protested against the pressure boing but on them, saying that it would do more harm than good : they could not punish the people they desired to unless serious popular disturbances should take place. nor could they send troops into Hunan. where the disturbances were the most important, and restore order, for that involved civil wer.
